THIRTY-SECOND YEAR NO. 24.

CEARVILLE, OHIO, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 11, 1909.

PRICE $1.00 A YEAR.

LETTER FROM REV. GARBOLD.

Kyoto, March 4th.
Prof. W. R. McChesney, Ph.D., Cedarville, O.

My Dear Prof.—It is now more than four years since I was in Cedarville. Four years ago today I landed in Yokohama.

You have not had a letter from me during these busy years but I have thought of you and all of my friends in Cedarville, thousands of times. I am sure that I am sometimes remembered and prayed for by Cedarville people. I am all the time conscious of the help and strength supplied to me through the prayers of others.

We are in one of the centers of Japan activity. The most beautiful city in the land Kyoto is third in size for eleven hundred years the capital was here.

It is still the center of the Japanese religions. There are more than a thousand temples and shrines in the city besides a little one in almost every house. Kyoto is the center of ancient art. Thousands of people are employed in the manufacturing of things new and old.

One of the two fully equipped universities is here. Next to it is one of the Seven Government colleges and next to it one of the best High Schools in Japan. Kyoto has three High Schools for boys and three for girls.

"A great door is open to us!"
You in America hear so much of Japanese army and navy, her commerce and politics, that you are apt to think that the evangelization is assured. To my mind Japan is in a most alarming condition—Power without a Christian sentiment, a Christian conscience and Christian control is all too dangerous. The evangelization of Japan will insure the coming of the Kingdom, more than anything else which I can discern on the horizon of peace and prosperity as indicated by the signs of the times. We can feel the pulse of the world, right here in this island empire, just about as directly as anywhere else on the globe.

Hard work by missionaries for fifty years has brought Japan to the present position. Every Bible class and every personal talk will produce tremendous results in the economy of Christian progress, and the World's Evangelization.

Now is the time to strike and now is the iron at hand for the field is white. I am sending a map of this city and here I give a key to the letters on the map:

(A) is where we live. This house belongs to our Mission Board.
We have Bible classes, a Sabbath School and many other meetings here. Across the street is a big internediate school with 1200 pupils (There are five such schools in the city).

(B) Here I have a Sabbath-School on Saturday but which I had to close, partly because I had no money to pay the rent and partly because some students wanted a Bible class at the same hour. I hope to be able to open it again at another hour, in April.

(C) Here with money given to me last year by Mr. and Mrs. D. B.
Gamble of Cincinnati, I bought a fine lot extending from street to street right in the midst of the schools. There is an old house on the lot and in this I am pushing work among students. A Japanese pastor has been helping me since November. Our Board is not able to give me any money for this work so I must dig for it myself. I have been paying the salary of this man with money which I get for teaching 9 hours per week in the above mentioned High School. I ought to have this time and strength for direct evangelistic work.

This opportunity among students is tremendous.

(D) Here we have a preaching place and a meeting every Tuesday night preceded by a children's meeting. We have three teachers for the children's meeting. A Japanese minister speaks one week and I speak the next. We have the money for this work.

(E) This is called the Go Jo church. Two years ago a preaching place was opened here and we now have sixty six members. The house costs 25 yen per month. The Christians will pay this hereafter and the Mission pays the salary of the evangelist. I baptized seven of these Christians since New Year.

The evangelist there is a Russian.
We also have a Bible woman to work in connection with the place.
He since the Christians pay the rent we have the money with which to pay this woman and also to rent the house at (F).

But we have no money with which to employ an evangelist so this place must be content with a children's meeting and one preaching meeting a week. The name of this place is Fushimi, celebrated in history as it was the castle seat of the great Kido-yoshi. We ought by all means to have an evangelist here to spend all his time and build up a church. (By the way all Presbyterian and Reformed churches in Japan are united. There is but one.) This town is five miles from Kyoto by train or electric car. We started the children's meetings in October, Sixty-six were present the last time. The preaching meetings began in January. There have been no conversions as yet. Three regiments of Soldiers are located at this place. A captain in one of these is a Christian and he is living in the preaching place, takes care of the house and helps at the meetings. I want $25 per month to put this work where it will bring in big returns in the saving of souls.

(G) This is the independent Presbyterian church. Work was begun twenty years ago. This church is the result. This church employs a pastor who has been my teacher ever since I came to Kyoto. They have a nice little building all paid for. Next door to this Mrs. Gar-bold has a kindergarten. On Sunday morning both church and kindergarten are used for Sabbath School purposes. I have a Bible class (English) at nine o'clock. On next Sunday two fine young men, students of Doshisha college who have been attending this class for two and three years respectively, are to be baptized in the church.

(H) Here is a big section where nothing was being done for a great population until we opened a Sabbath School on every Monday afternoon. The rent is two dollars and a half per month. I have no money for this but it will never do to let two dollars and a half per month stand in the way of Christian teaching for these eager listeners.
I think there is some one in Cedarville who would be delighted to give this Sabbath School, to a needy district for two and a half dollars per month.

(I) Here Mrs. Garbold has a Kindergarten. This is the center of Kyoto's Weaving district. Mrs.
Garbold also has a big Sabbath School here on Sunday afternoon.
We have evangelistic meetings here on Thursday nights. I speak one time and the pastor one time. In February I secured a theological student to speak on Sunday nights.
I cannot be there on Sunday nights as I must be at (O). But we must have a regular Sunday and midweek services and to get into the homes to teach and save the people. This is one of the most promising openings for the building up of a large congregation. I have nothing for this work except three dollars and a half which I give the pastor for his services on Thursday nights.
If I had $20 per month for a year or two I would transform the neighborhood. We also have a big children's meeting on Thursday night just before the preaching service. I pray that God may lay it upon some one's heart to come to the rescue of this neighborhood for Christ.

(J) Is a big heathen temple. People go here to worship the God Tanjin, god of good fortune. On the 25th day of every month there is a big festival—tens of thousands of people come. Hundreds of side shows, shops and vendors and medicine men of all kinds throng the streets and grove which surrounds the place. I always put up a large tent right in front of the big gate (torii) and here with the help of all whom I can press into the service we hold an evangelistic meeting from noon until ten or eleven at night. If you can come on that day you can speak to as many people as you are able to make hear.
I have the money for the rent of this place and some money for tracts but could use five or ten dollars per month in this work if I had it. The Japanese will read any thing they can get hold of and will take anything you offer them. One day we gave away 15,000 tracts at this place. We often sell 100 New Testaments (5 sen per copy) at these festivals.

(K) Is a good sized town nine miles away and the county seat of a county in which very little is being done for the evangelization of the people. Twenty-five dollars per month would make it possible to open this work. * * * * *

This is by no means all of the openings and needs which are constantly before my eyes. But these are the ones which trouble me most and the ones for which I feel the first responsibility. I think that you are interested in this work and I think that there are many others in Cedarville, who without regard to church connection will be only too glad to have an opportunity like this for sharing in the evangelization of Japan and the world.
As I am here in the midst of the pressing need, and can wisely use a little of your interest in this enterprise. After much thought and prayer I have written this long letter "with my own hand."

I am sure that Dr. McKinney and Prof. Jurkat and doubtless others of the faculty and students whom I do not know will be glad to help.
I believe there are a great many people in Cedarville who may know me or at least know what it will mean to get in direct touch with such a fruitful field, will count it a great privilege to unite in these labors. All of this work for which I have made estimates is new work started since I came to Kyoto. I have not been able to get appropriations for it, simply because the Board of Missions in New York has not been able to make any increased grant. We have nearly nine hundred missionaries in the different countries of the globe and with so many emergencies as constantly occur it is very difficult to grant increases since the whole field comes in for a share of every additional so any one person realizes very little for opening up of new work. If the friends in Cedarville find it in their hearts to make themselves responsible for some of this wonderful missionary enterprises I shall give full reports of the work and the expenditures and shall have all accounts audited by a committee of our Mission on the field. I hope we can have a "Cedarville Mission in Japan" right here in Kyoto. If you think it best to speak to people privately or to have a meeting or to form a committee or both, according to your judgment, I think that far reaching results will be obtained.

I think there are some who will agree to put in five dollars per month; some $4, $3, $2.50, $2, $1, 50c or 25c. The money might be sent each month or as you might find it convenient.

Money given in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, for the glory of God and the Salvation of men who are without the gospel, will I am sure bring forth a hundred fold.

One hundred and twenty dollars U. S. money, per month is the estimate. All or whatever part may be forthcoming will have my most earnest and careful attention. May God direct you and me and all who love him.

Yours for the world and for him.
R. P. Garbold.

WELLS-CRESWELL NUPTIALS.

Mr. Benoit Creswell's home was the scene of a most charming and successful wedding ceremony. The bride was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Wells. The groom was Mr. James Russell Wells. The ceremony was performed by the Rev.
W. E. Felt, the bride's pastor.

After congratulations, all assembled in the dining room where an elegant three course dinner was served.
The bride wore a most becoming gown of sheer white trimmed with lace, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The home was beautifully decorated with roses and carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Wells left on the evening train for St. Louis, and after a short stay will return to Cedarville, where their already prepared home is awaiting them.

Selma Store Is Burglarized.

George Mayo, colored, was found early Monday morning in the general store of Robert Elder at Selma.
Dr. D. S. Bumgardner made the discovery and gave the alarm. The fellow was captured and after a hearing was bound over to the grand jury.

This store has been entered a number of times the past year and it may be that the right man has been captured.

CONTEST SETTLED.

C. E. Arbogast of Xenia has been re-appointed as a member of the City Board of Equalization by the State Board of Appraisers. The fight for this place has been on for some time. Arbogast having the support of County Auditor Dadds, M. L. Gowdy had the recommendation of the Republican Executive Committee. Dr. De Haven was being pushed by Walter L. Dean, the incoming auditor.

VILLAGE COUNCIL IN SESSION.

The regular meeting of the village council was held Monday evening, June 7th, 1909. In the absence of J. G. McCall, the clerk, L. G. Bull acted in his place.

Reports of different committees were read and approved and the usual monthly bills allowed.

The finance committee was instructed to make the levy for 1910. It is proposed to reduce the village levy one mill.

An ordinance was introduced, which if passed will reduce the salaries of the village officers, excepting night-watchman, to the treasurer. The state law provides for the treasurer and it was the best to allow the night officers the same.

The mayor will get only $50 instead of $100; clerk reduced from $100 to $75; marshal to $100; night $2 to $1 per night and only two meetings per month. The excitation ordinance was also read the first time.

As the ordinance has been read and has to be published. The Herald being asked to publish the same under a bid of six cents per hundred words. There was one other bid, sixty cents per hundred words.

A recess was taken until June 21 at.

Large Shipment of Wool.

The firm of Kerr & Hastings Bros. has just made the shipment of about 60,000 pounds of wool to a Boston firm. The price of wool at this year greatly exceeds that of last year and a large amount of wool growers of this section.

Since wool has increased in price there has been more of an inducement for farmers to raise up the raising of sheep. Cedarville township should produce some of the amount of wool that has been grown in this section.

CEARVILLE DEFEATED.

The Cedarville base ball team failed to even make a good showing last Saturday in a game with the O. S. & S. O. Home team. The score was 30 to 0. The local team seemed satisfied with having received a good supper.

AN OPPORTUNITY.

Antioch Chautauqua.

The Antioch college campus is being prepared for the great chautauqua that is to be held there this year. Dr. Fess has secured a long list of excellent talent for this season and the public can feel assured that the program will exceed that of any season so far.

As to accommodations, arrangements have been completed to care for larger crowds than last year.
The large dining hall in the dormitory will be under the personal direction of Dr. Fess so that good meals can be secured at a moderate cost. The large well will supply water by aid of a steam pump.

Tents will be placed on the west side of the campus for campers while the main tent for the different entertainments will be east of the main buildings. Hitching places for hundreds of horses will accommodate those who drive and wish to leave the city near the grounds.

In case of a severe storm persons on the grounds may take refuge in the large college buildings. At no time has the chautauqua appeared to have a brighter outlook than now.

DUNLAP-MATTHEWS.

A very pretty home wedding occurred at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Matthews, Thursday evening May Twenty-Seventh, when their daughter Eva Ree Matthews was given in marriage to Mr. Edward H. Dunlap, Rev. J. C. Arnett performing the ceremony.

The bride and groom entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March played by Mrs. S. S. Cobb and stood under a beautiful arch of roses from the center of which was suspended a beautiful wedding bell. The ceremony was performed with a soft accompaniment of "Annie Laurie" on the piano. The bride looked lovely in

For Coughs—Take This

Do you know a remedy for coughs and colds nearly seventy years old? There is one—Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Once in the family, it stays. It is not a doctor, does not take the place of a doctor. It is a doctor's aid. Made for the treatment of all throat and lung troubles. Ask your own doctor his opinion of it. Follow his advice. No alcohol in this cough medicine. J.C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

You cannot recover promptly if your bowels are constipated. Ayer's Pills are gently laxative and direct to the liver. Sold for nearly sixty years. Ask your doctor all about them.

MIAMI UNIVERSITY TO CELEBRATE HER CENTENNIAL IN JUNE WITH APPROPRIATE EXERCISES

OHIO'S FAMOUS COLLEGE

Was Created by State Act in 1809 and Centenary Will Be Held June 16-Orators, Lyman Abbott, Brander Matthews.

Miami university will celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of her founding on June 16. In the college town of Oxford there will gather for this notable event men distinguished in every walk of American life, to gather with many hundreds of Miami alumni and former students from all parts of the country.

Governor Harmon, with his entire staff, will be present as the representen's health has been so impaired that he is unable to discharge the functions of his office actively, and his duties have been largely assumed by the vice president, Walter L. Poy of Hamilton, his interest in the affairs of the old school remains unaltered. This interest is shared by all the members of his family, including the president. When a committee representing the university recently called on the president to invite him to Oxford on June 16, he showed such interest in the event that he was unwilling to decline, although unable to accept definitely. The president said that if congress were adjourned by that date he would make every effort to attend.

Centennial Plans Outlined. While the centennial proper will be celebrated on June 16, the whole of Miami, and the eyes of every visitor confirm it. There are acres in the campus proper, and the school has another tract of forest almost equal size beyond it.

It is expected that if the college buildings and the dormitories of the women's colleges are inadequate to house all the visitors, a city of tents will be erected in the campus, and the visitors will be given a taste of camp life—and camp life at Oxford in June is worth while in itself.

On Sunday, June 13, President Guy Potter Benton of the university will deliver the annual baccalaureate sermon, in the forenoon, and in the evening the Rev. Dr. Herbert Christie will preach to the Christian associations. On Tuesday the Normal college will hold its commencement in the afternoon, and in the evening class day will be the feature.

The centennial celebration will occupy the whole of Wednesday, and the centennial committee, of which Professor Alfred H. Upham is chairman and Bert S. Barlow secretary, has outlined this program, which will be followed with only slight deviation:

PROCLAMATION OF GOVERNOR HARMON

"The State of Ohio has shown its interest in education by the establishment and support of three colleges. One of them, Miami University, was founded in 1825, at Oxford, by the General Assembly, in conformance with the provisions of a grant by Congress in 1792 of a tract of land to John Cleves Symmes to be devoted to higher education. The purpose of the founding of this college has been realized in a large degree and in the century of its existence there have been graduates more than 7,000 youth of the two sexes, and among them many who have distinguished themselves in every walk of life. As a matter of permanent as well as of congratulation over the past and stimulation for the future it is fitting that its graduates and all friends of higher education should appropriately commemorate the first Centennial Anniversary of this historic institution.

"The authorities of the college have designated the 16th and 17th days of June, 1925, as an appropriate time; therefore, on behalf of the citizens of the state, as Governor thereof, I hereby commend the celebration of this anniversary to the alumni of the institution, the citizens of the state and friends of education everywhere, for such commemoration as suits the occasion.

JUDSON HARMON."

Although Ohio has three state colleges, none is intertwined with the history of the state and nation as is the old school at Oxford. Dating back from the sixth year of the state's life, she has been identified closely with every step of the state's development, and particularly with her intellectual Yates, the war governor of Illinois, and James B. Hays, war governor of Michigan. At one time during the great war the adjoining states of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Michigan, were all governed by Miami men. A compilation of her prominent graduates recently made shows what a factor the old "Yale of the West," as she was called before the Civil War, has been in American life. Beginning with President Harrison, Miami has sent the following men to places of power and distinction:

President of the United States...	12
Governors of states...	2
Lieutenant governors...	2
Cabinet officers...	1
Speakers of the House...	1
Foreign ministers...	5
United States consuls...	1
Congressmen...	23

the enactment of a law in 1809 by the Ohio legislature, entitled "An Act to Create the Miami University," and attained nationwide influence before the great convulsion of the civil war, Miami university has never been so large, so prosperous, so well-equipped, so efficient and aggressive as today. The period of her greatest growth dates from the accession of President Guy Potter Benton, seven years ago. When he came to the presidency from the Upper University of Iowa the attendance was stationary around the

But while Miami was serving the state that gave her birth, she was enriching the nation with her sons. In all she has sent out 12 boys who became governors of states, and some of them were notable men of their times. There was Oliver P. Morton, the war governor of Indiana, and Richard Miami's "Son-in-Law." Although since the days of President Harrison's administration Miami has been among the American colleges that claim a president of the United States as a son, she has the unique distinction of being the only college that also has a president as a "son-in-law." That is the way President Taft described himself in a speech at the Miami commencement three years ago. The then secretary of war came on to Oxford to attend the unveiling of a portrait of Mrs. Taft's father, the Hon. John William Herron of Cincinnati, and to make the chief address of the day.

LIBRARY BUILDING.

Mr. Herron's association with Miami is extraordinary. He was graduated there in 1846, and for 49 years he has served the institution as a trustee. For more than 25 years of this period he has been president of the board of trustees, a place in which he still continues, and will doubtless continue until his death. In his speech Mr. Taft said that if he couldn't call himself a son of old Miami he felt that he might presume enough on Mr. Herron's record to claim relationship as a son-in-law. Miami accepted the suggestion, and the president is known today on the campus at Oxford.

A BAPTIST ELDER

Restored to Health by Vinol

"I was run down and weak from indigestion and general debility, also suffered from vertigo. I saw a cod liver preparation called Vinol advertised and decided to give it a trial, and the results were most gratifying. After taking two bottles I regained my strength and am now feeling unusually well." Henry Cunningham, Elder Baptist Church, Kingston, N. C.

Vinol is not a patent medicine—but a preparation composed of the medicinal elements of cod's livers, combined with a tonic iron and wine. Vinol creates a hearty appetite, tones up the organs of digestion and makes rich, red blood. In this natural manner, Vinol creates strength, for the run-down, overworked and debilitated, and for delicate children and old people. For chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis Vinol is unexcelled.

All such persons in this vicinity are asked to try Vinol on our offer to refund their money if it fails to give satisfaction.

Judge Gives The Limit.

Judge Geiger of Springfield placed the limit of $500 fine and costs on a woman violator of the county local option laws last Thursday. The next time it is to be $500 according to the Judge's idea. There are some ten cases to come up at this time. It is claimed that the former saloonists have been selling the real stuff as "near beer." It comes in kegs and is branded by the government stamp as if it were genuine. This makes it almost impossible to tell which is which.

Auto Tags For Next Year.

The state automobile department has adopted a license tag for next year—1910—that differs in design as well as color from that of 1909, which has been continued for the current year.

The background of the 1910 tag will be mahogany—the letters white as now. Instead of the big O with encircled H, the new tag will show the word Ohio spelled vertically at the left of the number, and on the right the figures 1910 will be arranged vertically. Both "Ohio" and "1910" will be in letters much smaller than the figures of the tag number.

Practically all of the former holders of auto licenses who are now applying for renewals request that the same numbers be assigned to them. No matter how objectionable a number may have been to the owner at first, one season's use seems to attach him to it.

There are now 17,128 automobiles in use in Ohio—no more. That is to say there are no more unless some fellow somewhere is operating one without a license. The books of the state automobile department showed at noon Saturday, that that number of live auto licenses were out. When the law was being considered by the legislature the estimate of the number of machines in the state was between 17,000 and 18,000—so it would seem that it was figured pretty close.

Jollying the Parents.

"Why did you chuck that baby under the chin?" asked the man. "It is such an ugly little sinner." "That is why I chuckled him," said the woman. "I wanted to make his parents feel happy. I always get so much coddling from strangers that their parents take it as a matter of course. It is the fathers and mothers of homely babies who appreciate attention. Didn't you notice how pleased that couple looked? I don't suppose anybody ever petted that baby before except themselves. They'll think a lot more of the youngster after this."—New York Press.

How He Acquired Trouble.

"Education," said the man who had been sued for breach of promise, "is the root of all evil."

"How so?" asked the man who had not been sued and consequently could not reason from the same premises.

"If I hadn't been able to write," answered the defendant, "what evidence do you suppose they would have against me?" Still, he conceded after some argument that the man who can write and won't has some advantages over the man who doesn't write because he can't.—Chicago Post.

He Walked.

"Good afternoon, Miss Brown! Going for a walk? May I go with you?" asked an elderly but ardent admirer of the lady.

"Yes; my doctor says that we must always walk with an object, and I suppose you'll answer the purpose?"

The Exporter.

"Who is your Chicago friend?" "He is a prominent exporter." "What does he export?" "I didn't say he exported anything. He used to be a porter at the hotel where I stopped."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

GOLDEN JUBILEE IS CELEBRATED.

Springfield was the scene this week for the Ohio Sunday School Workers of the state. Thousands of delegates and visitors were present to attend the sessions. While there were many good things brought out in the convention there probably was nothing better than the editorial in the Daily News of Tuesday evening. The following is from the pen of Mr. George Durbin, without a doubt the best writer on any daily paper in the state.

The meeting of the Ohio Sunday School association at Springfield this week ought to be of a good deal of interest not only to people of this city, but to the people of the whole state. Indeed, anything that pertains to the Sunday school and its maintenance and betterment is of interest to the whole human race.

There is of course no way of estimating to what extent the Sunday school has aided the churches. Any more than there is a way of estimating the good the churches have done. Both are beyond computation.

But just as we may see and know that the churches do much good, so may we also see and know that the Sunday schools do good. The very fact that when a boy or girl brought up in the Sunday schools goes wrong, it is a matter of comment is a pretty good indication of the value of the Sunday schools. It is an evidence that as a rule such children are not so apt to go wrong as where they are brought up without such training and influence.

If it could be demonstrated today that the whole scheme of human redemption is a myth; that there is nothing in the Christian religion over and above other religions; that the Bible is only a volume of fiction, in a sense—if something should happen to prove conclusively that the persons spoken of in the Bible had no existence save in the fanciful brain of man, it would be no argument against the Sunday schools. There would still be a profit in doing so. The boy or girl who has a good Sunday school education would still be expected to force ahead in the race of life, to lead the one who has not. Better citizens would continue to be made in the churches and the Sunday schools than outside of them.

For there is an educational value in the Sunday schools as well as a religious value. The training which the child receives there would not be given to it elsewhere. It might be possible to give the child as good instruction in the home—in deed, there is no reason why it should not be taught the Bible as well in the home as elsewhere. But the fact remains that it is not done.

The Bible students of the world today began in the Sunday schools. And, let it be stated right here as a truth, that the Bible student is the profoundest of students; that no man is educated without a knowledge of the Bible; that the best writers of the world have been familiar with its pages; that it is a criterion upon all occasions; that from a literary standpoint it has no equal.

There is not a lesson of life that is worth teaching but is taught in the Sunday schools. There is not a rule of conduct that should be followed, but is drilled over and over into the minds of the children who attend such institutions. Every lesson of economy and thrift which is of importance to the world is taught. Charity is exemplified as where else so well. Humanity is a cardinal principle of every lesson outlined. Virtue is inculcated into the mind of the very youngest student. Patience and tolerance and forbearance the one with another can be seen nowhere else to such advantage. Unselfishness, self-sacrifice, love for all of God's creation is given to the Sunday school scholar in the most intensely practical way.

That the Sunday school is not attended to the extent that it ought to be, there is no doubt. That question will probably receive consideration at the hands of the state association now in session. But it is not the fault of the schools themselves; it is a fault of the people who ought to know better. Perhaps this convention can teach them better. If it can it will have performed a work for the world such as can hardly be conceived.

For it ever there was a time in the history of the world when it behooved the race to get back to first principles it is right now. If there ever was a period when children needed to be taught to be faithful, and law-abiding, and helpful, this is the time.

With the concentration of wealth and the aggrandizement thereof which must follow; with half of the world peevish and discontented and suspicious; with financial problems and industrial problems to be solved; with wars and rumors of wars disturbing the world and the whole human race being impoverished by war preparations, certainly it is time when the doctrine of peace as taught by Christ needs to be poured into the formative mind, that order may come out of this chaos and humanity and justice follow.

BANKER SUED FOR DAMAGES.

Oscar L. Smith, cashier of the Exchange Bank, Cedarville, is the defendant in an action for $3000 damages brought against him in Common Pleas court by Ellsworth Edwards, who alleges that he furnished false information before the grand jury last January, causing the plaintiff's indictment upon a charge of forgery, and imprisonment for thirty-one days. The petition recites that the defendant did further, maliciously, and without probable cause, prosecute and assist in the plaintiff's prosecution upon the indictment, at the January term of court; that he was compelled to defend himself against said false charge until February 1st, when his innocence being established, the indictment against him was nolle. The plaintiff says that he was prevented from transacting his business by his imprisonment; injured in public scandal and infamy.

A case of mistaken identity resulted in the prosecution of Ellsworth Edwards, and his brother, Adolphus, whose confession cleared the former, is now serving a term in the penitentiary for the crime. Ellsworth was bound over from the court of Mayor Wolford, of Cedarville, on the charge of forging the name of his employer, J. A. Bumgarner, to a check for $20.20, which was cashed at the Exchange Bank. Adolphus, who was suspected of being connected with the offense, could not be found, but both brothers were indicted on the charge of forgery. Later Adolphus was captured and made a confession, exonerating his brother from all connection with the crime.

Cashier Smith, of the Exchange Bank, testified against Ellsworth before the grand jury, but when the brothers were brought before him, identified Adolphus as the man who passed the forged check. H. C. Armstrong, attorney—Gazette.
